Since 1983

Your referral could be worth $50.00!

Thank you for your continued interest in Safe Side Security. We depend on our reputation to further our company's growth. We are committed to "customer satisfaction" because we know it keeps our referrals going strong. Since 1983 we have become a highly recognized name in the security business. This recognition has come primarily from our satisfied customers who have recommended Safe Side to their friends and business associates. This word of mouth advertising has allowed us to maintain a steady growth in a very competitive business environment, despite our lack of advertising.

In an effort to promote additional referrals and at the same time say "Thank you" to those who tell their friends and business associates about our services, we would like to offer the following incentive:

$50.00 credit towards your monitoring

for any referral (from an existing customer) that results in the installation of a monitored Safe Side Security Alarm.
